

FACULTY ADVISOR POSITION

George Mason University and the Washington Journalism and Media Conference (WJMC) seek a dynamic and enthusiastic individual to fill the position of Faculty Advisor (FA) for two sessions of a week-long residential student leadership conference held July 7-12 and July 14-19, 2024.

About WJMC: The week-long program brings together 300 of the nation's brightest rising high school juniors and seniors for an intensive experiential conference focused on leadership and journalism. Students and staff reside on the Fairfax campus of George Mason University while taking advantage of Washington, D.C. and venues such as the National Press Club and the U.S. Capitol. Detailed information and a tentative schedule can be found at wjmc.gmu.edu.

Job Description: The Faculty Advisor is responsible for facilitating the assigned curriculum and providing students with the best possible conference experience. Each Advisor will be assigned to a group of students that they will lead along with a Junior Faculty Advisor for the conference's duration.

Job Duties:

- Lead a group of up to 23 students and facilitate the assigned curriculum and discussion topics
- Work with one Junior Faculty Advisor as a mentor in the implementation of the curriculum
- Be able and willing to interact in a large group setting and be responsible for the safety and wellbeing of students at all times during the conference

Job Requirements:

- Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree
- Must be 21 years of age
- Ability to carry out the responsibilities listed above and abide by the Conference Code of Conduct
- Interest in and knowledge of journalism and the media
- Experience working with high school students
- A high energy level, flexibility, and the ability to work extended days and hours
- Travel to and from campus at the start and end of the conference and pay for parking if using a personal vehicle
- Must report to campus at 3 p.m. ET on July 5, 2024 and reside on campus at George Mason University for both conference weeks with departure on July 19, 2024
- Pass a mandatory criminal background check
- U.S. citizenship or lawful permanent residency

Training: In-person training on July 5 and 6 is REQUIRED and on campus at George Mason University. Housing is provided during training.

Housing: Single-room accommodation is provided from July 5 to July 19.

Travel: Travel to and from George Mason University is not provided.

Arrival: Arrive on campus Friday, July 5 by 3 p.m.

Departure: Leave campus any time after 11 a.m. on Friday, July 19. Please make flight arrangements accordingly.

If you are parking on campus, you will receive more information closer to the summer about purchasing a parking permit*

Compensation: Faculty Advisors will receive $2,350/session and single-room accommodation for the conference weeks plus 2 training days. We expect compensation to cover travel and minimal meal costs during the conference.

How to Apply: Send a resume and cover letter to the Director by March 1.
